

THE OUTSIDER

by Clara V.

In the middle of nowhere in a forest the Plague Doctor leaves for the town in need of medical supplies.

The Dr. begins their walk into town and the doctor doesn't fly because they don't want to scare the villagers.

Whisper...

Whisper...

WHISPER...

Once arriving in town the Plague Doctor notices the villagers are staring once again even from the windows.

Whisper...

After the doctor buys her stuff they notice the villagers staring with mistrust and cursing her.

F YOU
BIRD BEAK

WHO-WHO

Later that day the doctor returns home to the calm quiet of their home.

HOOT HOOT!

Once inside the Doctor hears talons scratching at the window and goes outside where their pet owl lands on their arm with a note.

Dr.
We need your help immedaitly there is something wrong with my husband!

Mayor Nancy

After reading the Mayor's note the Dr. spreads their wings and takes off quickly into the night sky.

WOOSH - WOOSH

...SNIFF...

The Doctor flies to the Mayor's house and sees that Nancy is upset and crying, the doctor then goes into the next room to see the dying husband.

Nancy is so upset she doesn't see her husband moving. Suddenly the husband bites the mayor on the arm, The Doctor is surprised and looks on in horror.

The Doctor escapes from the window and quickly flies home. Once home the doctor goes to a secret room to grab her crossbows.

MOAN...

CLICK!

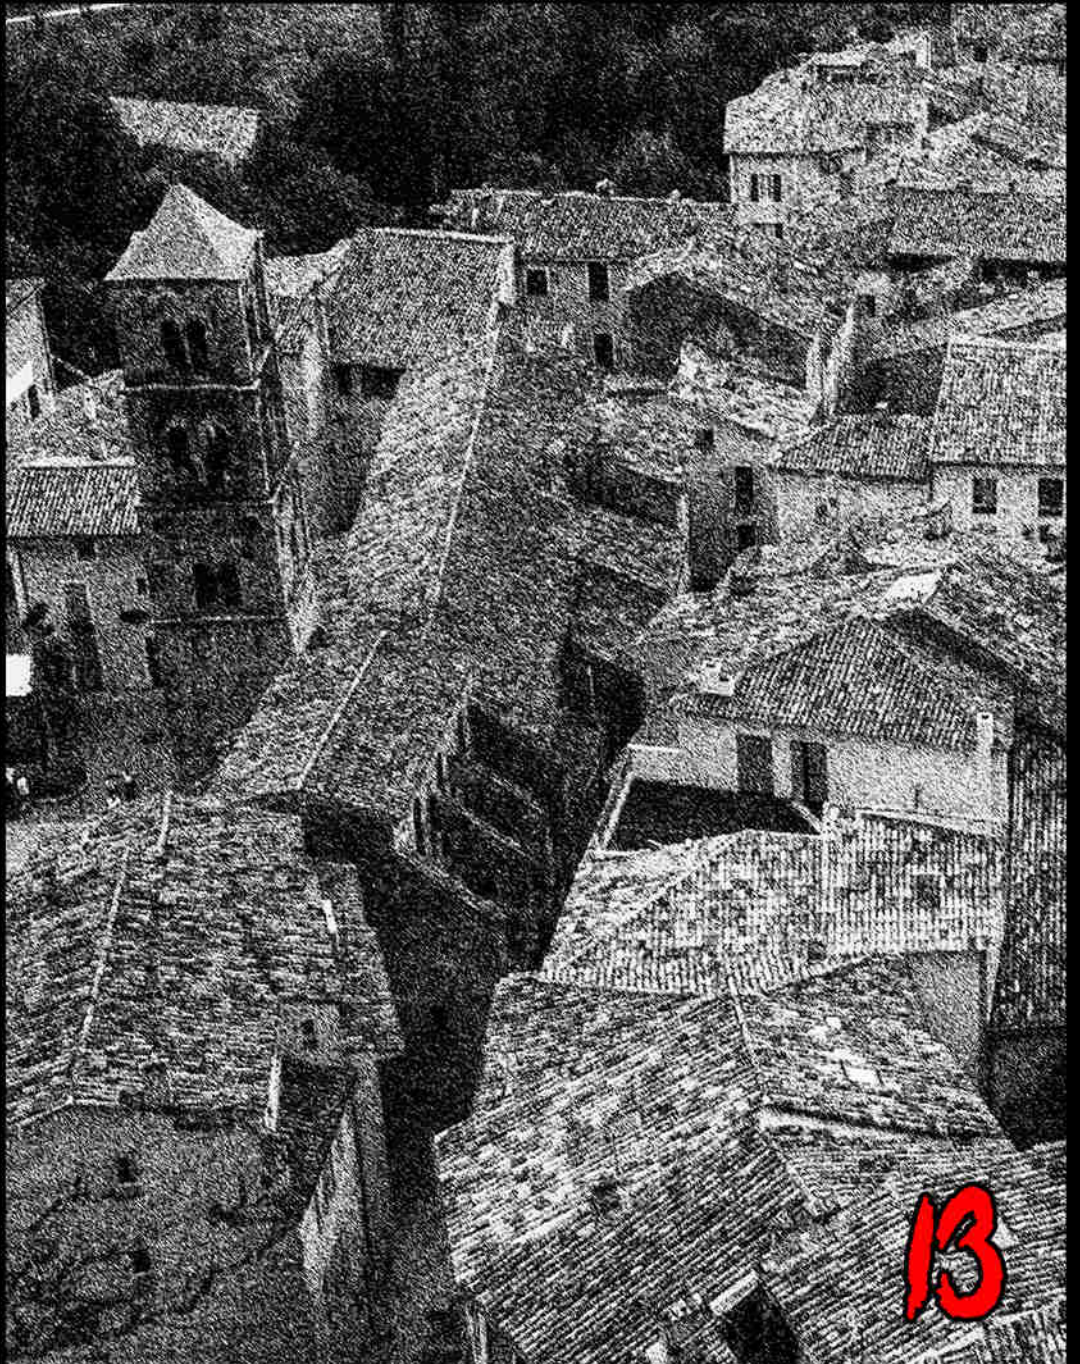

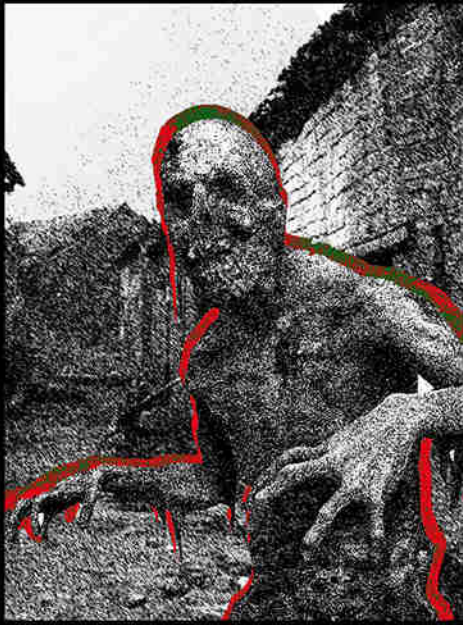

Fully armed the doctor flies off into town

Flying overhead The Doctor sees the town is full of zombies!

AHH!

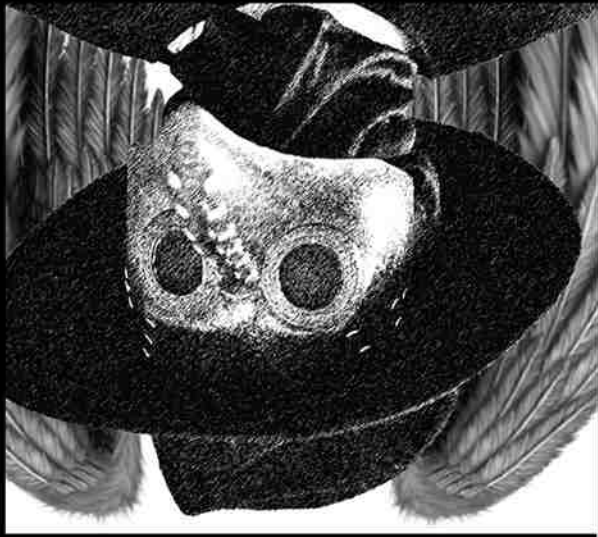

13

They hear a scream for help from a villager and dive down to save them.

HELP!

MOAN...

AW!

SPLAT

SNAP!

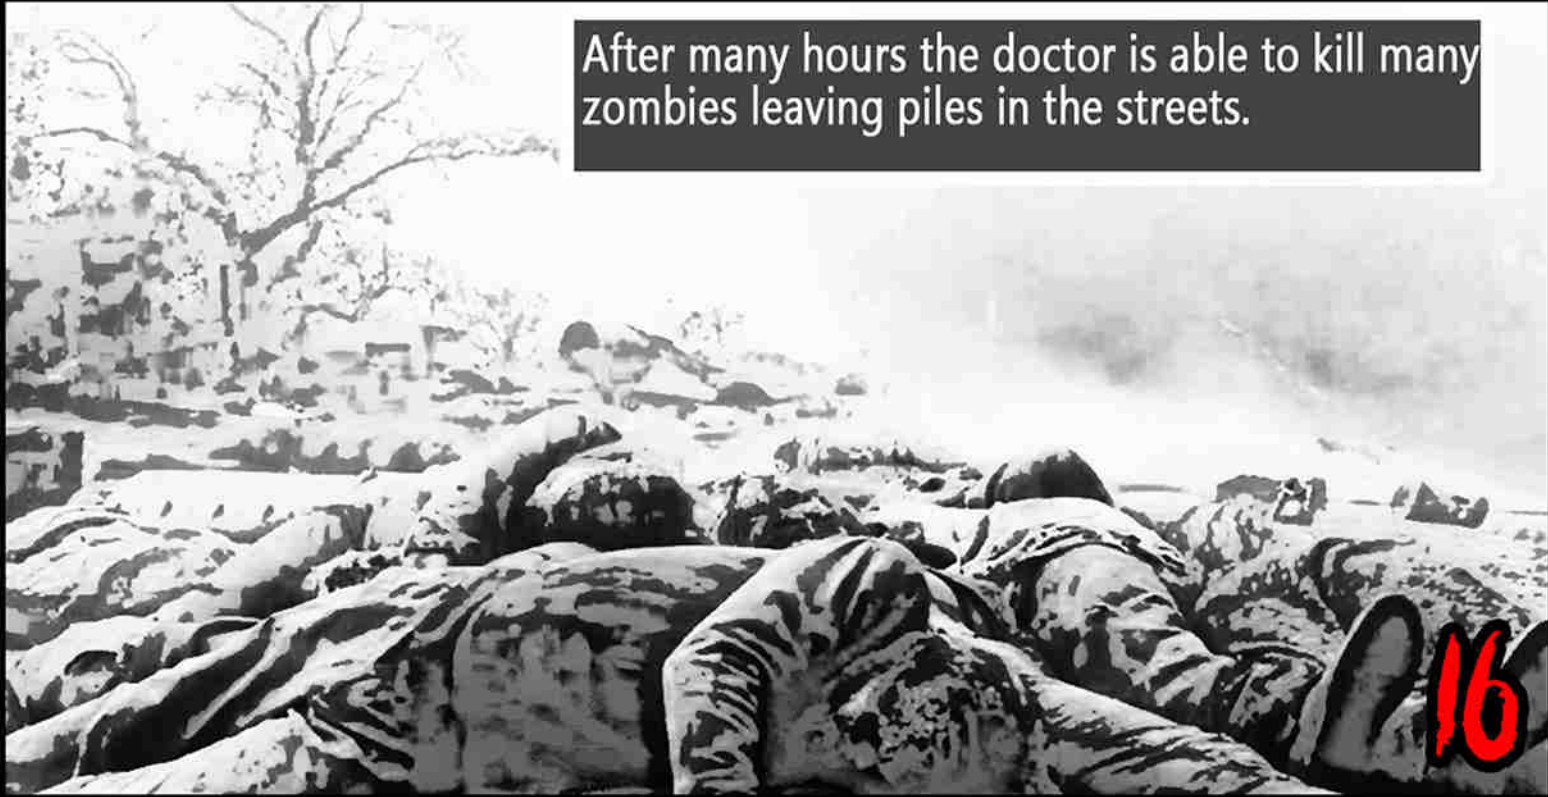

Soon, The Doctor comes face to face with even more zombies

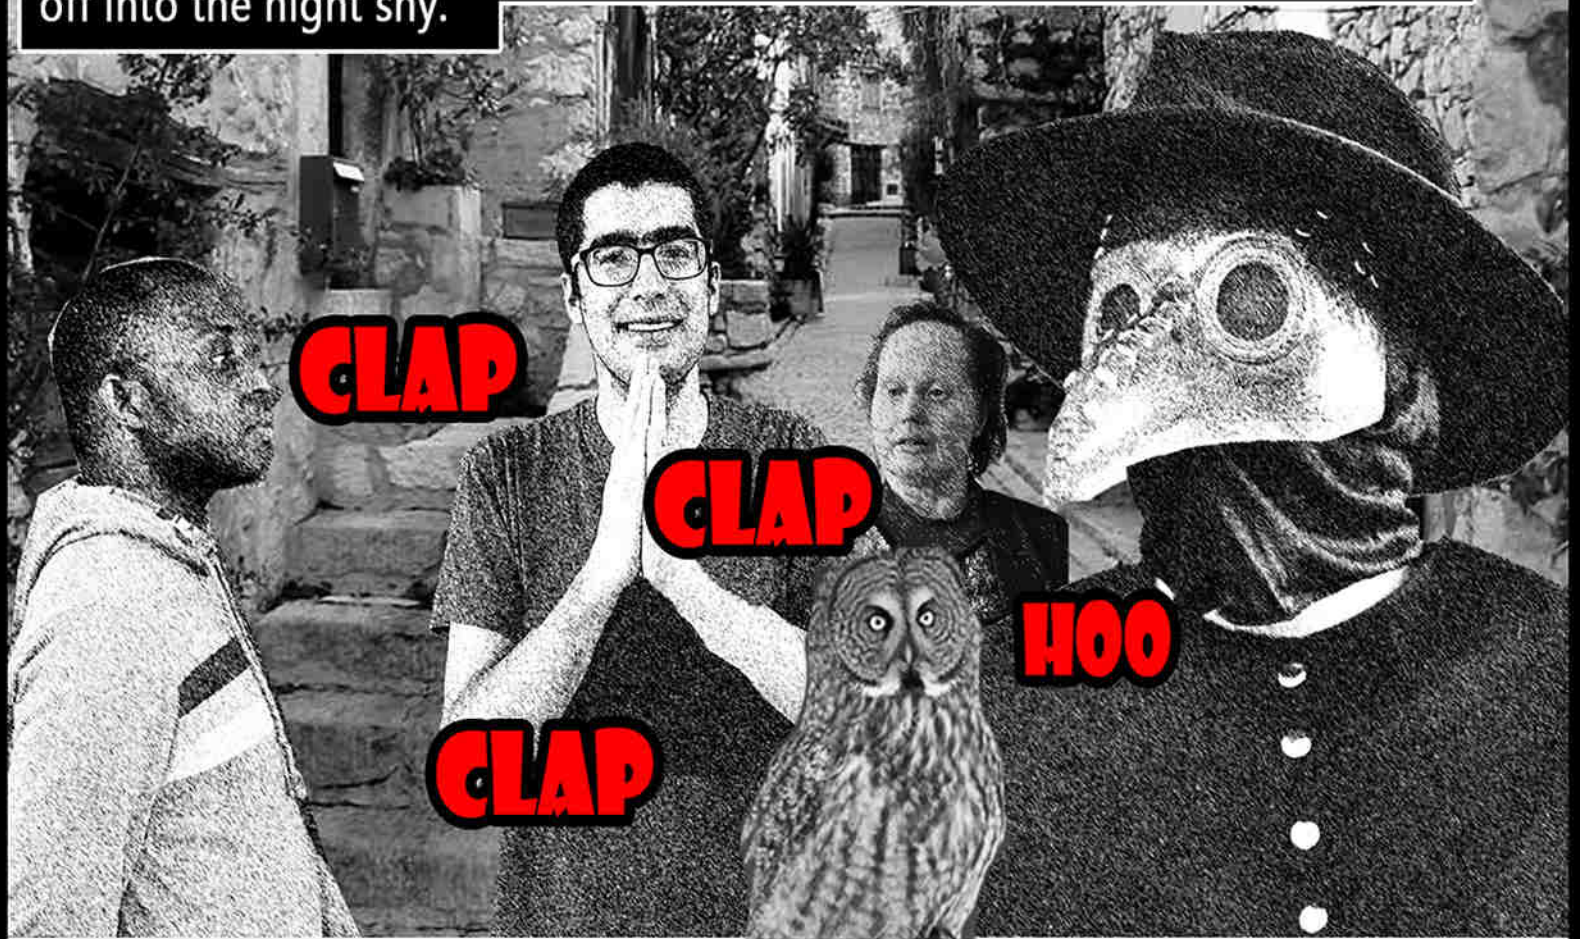

After many hours the doctor is able to kill many zombies leaving piles in the streets.

The villagers crawl out of cover to thank her and apologize for treating her so badly before the zombie attack. Without a word the Dr turns and takes off into the night shy.
